Duluth Veterinarians

Our Team

Our team of experienced and compassionate veterinarians will ensure that your pet is getting the best treatment possible. All of our doctors have various backgrounds and specialties, and each will provide stellar care to any animal that walks in the door. Let us help maintain your pet's optimum health at our office with the latest technology combined with experts in the field that have a passion for animal care. We hope you enjoy reading more about our veterinary staff.

Mike Miller, DVM, Owner, Medical Director

Dr. Miller was born in Cincinnati, Ohio and attended the University of California, Davis where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Animal Science and Agriculture. Dr. Miller received his Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine in 1990. After graduation, he completed an internship in small animal medicine and surgery at North Carolina State University. He then joined Duluth Animal Hospital in 1994.

He enjoys keeping the clients, patients, and staff in the best of care! In addition to veterinary medicine, Dr. Miller enjoys fishing, reading, skiing, and spending time with his family.

Beth Niagro, DVM, MS

Dr. Beth Niagro joined Duluth Animal Hospital in 1997. She earned her Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from the University of Georgia College of Veterinary Medicine, where she also completed an internship. Dr. Niagro received her Master of Science degree in Applied Biology and Physiology from the University of South Carolina and began working at Duluth Animal Hospital back in 1997. Her veterinary special interests include ultrasonography and internal medicine.

At home, Dr. Niagro has an adorable Papillon named Skipper. Her personal interests include reading, watching movies, and vacationing—especially to the beach!

Corby Holson, DVM

Dr. Corby Holson joined Duluth Animal Hospital in 2008. Born and raised in South Carolina, Dr. Holson received her Bachelor of Science degree from Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina. She went on to earn her Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from University of Georgia School of Veterinary Medicine, where she received an award for excellence in small animal medicine and surgery, as well as the Avian Medicine Excellence Award.

Dr. Holson's special interests include soft tissue surgery, behavior and dermatology. She holds a certification in veterinary acupuncture and is an active member of the American Veterinary Medical Association. At home, Dr. Holson is an avid runner and enjoys traveling and outdoor activities with her husband David and their dogs Pippin and Sprinkle Donut.
